

MAD LIBS

SNOW DAY

at Veterans Oasis Park
DECEMBER 27, 2017

What's in the forecast for Chandler, this December? Snow! That's right, there's a 100 percent chance of snow in the heart of southeast Chandler. The Environmental Education Center is bringing a side of winter we rarely get to see by creating a winter wonderland at Veterans Oasis Park. Bundle up the family up and save-the-date.

Before the first snow falls create your own winter wonderland with Chandler Parks & Recreation Mad Libs-style snow day story. All you have to do is get your family to pick the words then fill in the blanks and share. We can't guarantee they'll all make sense in the end, but we can promise it will be snow much fun!

I woke up early that morning and looked outside my _____ (noun). There was a _____ (number) foot high pile of snow. I couldn't believe my eyes. It looked so _____ (adjective).

I ran downstairs and turned on the television to see the weather. What is the forecast for today, you ask? According to meteorologist, _____ (name), it's going to be a _____ (adjective) snowfall - the first ever in Chandler's history! All schools were officially closed. I got dressed by putting on my _____ (noun), a pair of _____ (adjective) boots and hurried outside to play. Everything was covered with a _____ (adjective) layer of _____ (adjective) powered snow - it was _____ (adjective). My favorite part was _____ ing (verb)

a snowman. I _____ (past tense verb) three snowballs of _____ (adjective) sizes and _____ (verb) them on top of each other. I used two _____ (plural noun) for the eyes and a _____ (noun) for the nose. Two _____ (plural noun) from the yard, served well as arms. Once I added a _____ (noun), _____ (noun), and _____ (noun), Mr. Snowman was complete!

