

RECREATION LIBS

A WONKY + WACKY SUMMER WORD ADVENTURE

To celebrate Park & Recreation Month, we have created a Chandler Parks & Recreation Mad Libs-style game that is perfect for family fun wherever your summer travels take you. With your family and friends, fill in the blanks and let your imagination run wild as you discover, imagine, and grow together. While the end result may not always make sense, we guarantee it will bring lots of laughter.
