

Christine from the Bridges at Ocotillo HOA has shared a great tip for dealing with photocells for exterior landscape lighting:

If the nearby landscape grows over the photocell, it could cause the photocell to register as nighttime. This would trigger the light to stay on around the clock, which will cost you and your HOA money. Consider switching to a timer that automatically shuts off your photocells during the day.